Re: Notification of Inadvertent Release of XTRA Intermodal/X-L-Co. Responsive Insurance Information

Dear Mr. Poplawski,

I am contacting you with respect to the information X-L-CO., Inc. and XTRA Intermodal, Inc. submitted to EPA on October 12, 2018 (104(e) Response Letter) in response to an EPA August 28, 2018 Section 104(e) information request letter under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act (CERCLA). You may recall that the 104(e) Response Letter included information related to insurance policies and limits.

In the August 28, 2018 EPA information request letter, we also stated that we intended to share this information with certain EPA contractors. Recently I learned that, in an attempt to share the 104(e) Response Letter with EPA's expert insurance contractor law firm (Eisenstein Malanchuk, LLP), the 104(e) Response Letter was inadvertently shared via electronic mail with a Mr. Douglas Eisenstein of Advanti Solutions in Boston, Massachusetts. Immediately upon receipt of the message transmitting the 104(e) Response Letter, Mr. Douglas Eisenstein indicated via email that he was not the intended recipient of the message and that he would promptly delete the message from his computer.

The 104(e) Response Letter has not been shared with any other party outside EPA.

EPA is committed to protecting company information that is shared with us, and I wanted to assure you that EPA treats with utmost seriousness the importance of protecting information provided to EPA. If you have any questions related to this matter, I welcome the opportunity to discuss this further. You may contact me directly at 312-886-6613 or turner.thomas@epa.gov.

Sincerely,

Tom Turner
